

The Focus of the February 5th Prayer Conference Call

Dr. Corinthia Boone

Scriptural References: Psalms 91, Roman 8:2

Prayer Points:

- Our hearts are full of thanksgiving, praise, & adoration for who you are Lord, and that which you are doing in the earth today; we receive much power as we praise & worship the King
- We seek God's face as we dwell in the secret place of the most high
- We come to plead the blood of Jesus over our prayer line as we cover ourselves with the blood of Jesus
- Lord, we are holding onto your truths, for you're the spirit of light
- You give a spirit of light; let there be streams of living water flowing within us in this hour
- We have hope because we'll drink deep into your living water; our roots go deep
- Christ be at home within us as we trust you the more

Pastor Rudy DePass

Scriptural References: Ezekiel 18:2, Ezekiel 22:30, Daniel 9:2, 5 - 6

Prayer Focus:

- We fathers have eaten sour grapes & our children are set on edge
- Now God is looking for a man to stand in the gap – there are many gaps, but few men to stand in them
- God has shown us the moral degradation in our society
- In a similar context, Daniel turned to the Lord and pleaded with him in prayer & petition, in fasting & in sackcloth & ashes
- Daniel confessed to the Lord that we have sinned, rebelled, turned from God's commands
- The challenge for us is to adhere to the tenets of II Chronicles 7:14

- We're thirsty and hungry for you Lord
- We ask you to remove the scales from our eyes
- We experience a dryness in our land
- We repent and come back, for if we repent, you'll command a blessing
- Thank you for the grace you've given us
- We pray that the church will operate as mature sons, praise is her warfare
- Our day starts when saints of God awaken
- If we hold to God's teachings, He'll separate the sheep from the goats, and we'll know who's of us as true disciples & we will stand as a standard

Bishop Joseph Hughes

Scriptural Reference: Job 4:3 - 5

Prayer Points:

- We as leaders & supervisors have instructed many in the past
- Today, many leaders have fainted – something has happened to the sheep; as we have instructed many people in the past, God is looking to us to teach our children
- God said he'd save our children
- Many are ready to give up; but now it has come upon the leadership to stand on God's word – we have to praise & glorify him
- We need to speak to issues in the city. I pray that leaders will stand on God's word

Prayer Points:

- Lord, we call upon your name in times of trouble; we cry out for help
- If we'd stretch forth our hands, signs & wonders will follow & men will say who caused such things to happen
- We call upon heaven, we urgently cry out
- We pray for gatekeepers to declare your power be released in the city
- Lord, let miracles be seen in our government, in our President & other leaders
- Touch those who need to be touched; let chains of darkness be broken; let effective fervent prayer come forth

Bishop Wayne Green

Prayer Points:

- As we pray, we remember that prayer moves God
- We give praise to God & believe God will deliver us
- Prayer brings breakthrough. In the book of Acts, an earthquake came after prayer
- What we ask and we must believe that what we bind will be bound
- We must doubt not & speak to our mountains and believe the power of our words
- Lord, break darkness in those in need of deliverance

Pastor Jeffrey Rogers

Scriptural Reference: II Peter 3

Prayer Points:

- There's a tendency to buy into the philosophy of our culture & doubt scripture
- We need to stand & know the power of truth; we must hold on to the truths already laid down
- We see lifestyles in conflict with the word; we need to establish what's true & reject what's a lie
