

I. Supreme Day of Prayer -- 51st year

- A. We were encouraged to take stock of how our generation is doing w.r.t. fulfilling the vision of MLK; and to
- B. Realize we're standing on the shoulders of giants who paid the price for us to be where we are today, especially us people of color
 - 1. Psalm 78:1 - 7 -- We'll not hide them from their children; Joel 1:3 -- Tell your children
 - 2. The Supreme Day of Prayer is that I Corinthians 16:9 effective fervent open door for that expression of our fulfillment of the tenets of the Dream
 - 3. There's a gap -- who will be that
 - a. Remnant to fill the void -- we need a generation of visionaries, innovators, dreamers,
 - b. Philippians 3:12 -- Paul said that I press on, that I may lay hold of that which Christ Jesus has laid before me .. Reaching forward to those things which are ahead -- I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus; and according to:
 - c. II Timothy 1:7 -- not with a spirit of timidly, but of power, love, & self-discipline.

II. Importance of Participation

Dr. Boone emphasized the importance of participation in the preparation for the Supreme Day of Prayer. To that end we prayer for:

- A. New pastors to join T.I.M. We were encouraged by Dr. Boone to seek out pastor acquaintances to bring to the first Tuesday meetings;
- B. Dr. Boone gave a progress report on the preparation for the Supreme Day of Prayer:
 - 1. Dr. Boone announced a volunteer (Andrea) to co--ordinate the Voices of Unity on August 30th;
 - 2. Bishop Williams appealed to all to come to Wednesday T.I.M. meeting with a special sacrificial offering to replenish T.I.M.'s treasury;
 - 3. Bishop Hughes agreed to be responsible to oversee the ushers for the event;
 - 4. The MLK Foundation is looking to move the MLK commemoration from the Lincoln Memorial to the MLK Memorial.

III. Notes and Reminders

- A. Resources needed for T.I.M include: Funds to finance chairs for the Supreme Day of Prayer & other scheduled ICHC activities.
- B. Dr. Boone encouraged us to watch our e-mails.
- C. Pastor Dervin Brown was introduced as the ICHC Public Relations Liaison. He developed a beautiful flyer which will be sent to all Pastors to distribute in their churches.

VI. Conclusion

We prayed for a move of God to send forth new members to T.I.M., hands & funds to assure that the Supreme Day of Prayer will be successful!
