

1. Father remind us that our focus should be on building the Kingdom of God.
2. Help us to see the big picture that includes all of us working together.
3. We reject all competition and pride that would minimize our effectiveness.
4. Help us to allow you to build the church on Jesus and not on personalities.
5. Help us to realize that our success is not wrapped up in what people think or numbers but it is all about Jesus.
6. We declare that we will rest, trust, and rely on you to build the church using all of us.
7. Thank you God for reminding us that the Kingdom and the people belong to you.

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.”

Trusting the Process: Preparing for the Promise; Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come, and it won't delay. (Habakkuk 2:3)

Given all of the divisiveness in our society, it was very timely for Pastor Dervin Brown, to bring a prayer focus in the form of a question; namely, “What kind Of People Are We?” To which he provided the answer from I Peter 2:9; namely, that we are all chosen by God, having the Spirit of Christ. This concept was expanded upon by Rabbi Eric and others, reminding us that we were formally Gentiles, but now people of God, being that new creation in Christ Jesus, expected to be His Ambassadors living in the world, but not of the world.

Pastor Rudy De Pass

You Jesus have armed us with strength for the battle” (2 Samuel 22: 40)

The spirit of worship, prayer, love and unity, coupled with the diversity of the participants, made the delicious banquet a holy and memorable event. The prayer focus on Friday morning, made it clear that it is the desire of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of us who are called by His name, must humble ourselves and honor one another, in order to demonstrate that we are legitimate disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ. May the grace and peace of our Lord be on all of us.

Dr. Hernando Caicedo (ILCAWCA)

“And let us consider how we may spur (stir up) one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, (Hebrews 12: 24-25)

Another amazing and anointed time of prayer and fellowship. Each week the Lord takes us deeper and brings us closer to Him and to each other. There is always another level of revelation He brings even as we labor and continue to move toward His heart of unity and oneness, learning to love and honor our brothers and sisters in Christ, Yeshua.

“Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another” (Romans 12:10).

“And those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we bestow greater honor; and our unrepresentable parts have greater modesty” (1 Corinthians 12:23).

Standing Tall In An UnGodly World!!

- 1) "But, dear friends, remember what the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ foretold – In the last times there will be scoffers who will follow their own ungodly desires" – Jude 1:17 (NIV)
- 2) "These are the men who divide you, who follow mere natural instincts and do not have the Spirit of Christ" – Jude 1:19 (NIV)
- 3) "But you beloved building yourselves on your most holy faith – praying in the Holy Spirit keep yourselves in the love of God" – waiting for the promise – strength, deliverance, peace, joy; Unity - Jude 1:20 (NIV) Amen!!

Psalm 127: 7 says, we must allow the Lord to build our lives, families, and ministries. God gives us a vision for our lives, families, and ministries but, when the fulfillment of the vision is delayed we can find ourselves rebuking God because of His timing.

We prayed that God will help us to trust the process. The question is, Is it God's vision or our vision? If it's God's vision, then we must obey Him and trust the process. We must trust God's decision and be uncomfortable.

We must ask ourselves a question, what I am I willing to lay down or embrace to trust God and love and unite with the brotherhood.
